Mama, Me, & the Holiday Tree

An Appalachian Contemporary Fantasy Holiday Tale
Appalachian Elementals #1.5

Award winning Northeast Tennessee author Jeanne G'Fellers' holiday novella, Mama, Me, and the Holiday Tree, will be released November 5, 2018.

About the Book

A dozen handmade holiday ornaments, that's all, but it might be an impossible task.

Centenary Rhodes and her mother are at constant odds. It's one of the many reasons Cent left home when she was eighteen. Mama's difficult for anyone to manage, but now that Cent's back home, she has to try. Mama, however, won't acknowledge who Cent's become, even though she's repeatedly been shown the truth.

It'll take more than popcorn strings and paper snowflakes to heal the rift that's formed between Cent and Mama. It's going to take bushels of patience, heaps of magic, and assistance from everyone on both sides of Embreeville Mountain to reset the Balance between them

But with Yule and Christmas just around the corner, it might already be too late.

Reviews for Cleaning House – Appalachian Elementals #1

"A stand-out book. An imaginative tale of identity steeped in Appalachian folklore." - BookLife Prize

"This is a book that will stay with you long after you've finished reading" - Author H. M. Gooden

This is a book for anyone who is looking for love and beauty amidst all the ugliness and cruelty our modern world so often displays." - Author A. M. Leibowitz
